Vicki Melvin & Melissa Grawe, President's-of-the-Month Jelly Roll Stew

Do you have jelly rolls in your stash or lots of 2 1/2 fabric strips? Join Melissa and Vicki in exploring the popular and fast jelly roll race quilt patterns, but with a few twists.

For an on-line tutorial and to see a jelly roll race quilt constructed, go to <http://land.missouriqltco.com/jelly-roll-race-2/>. This Missouri Star Quilt Company video shows how to make a jelly roll quilt in 45 minutes!

Stone Soup? Jelly Roll Stew?

Remember the old story of stone soup? There was a shortage of food in a country far away, but a traveler convinced the villagers to add what food they could to his bubbling pot with the "magic" stone. Visit <http://www.extremelinux.info/stonesoup/stonesoup.html>

WQG's modification of the fable is Jelly Roll Stew! About twenty (20) WQG members contributed approximately seventy five (75) 2 1/2" strips to our stew pot. Some of those members will "taste" the resulting stew!

Home of the Brave State Coordinator Report

The family of SPC Justin Ryan Helton (died June 9, 2014) has received one of Westerville Quilt Guild's twenty-one Home of the Brave quilts. The quilt (sewn by Ruth Ann Leavell, quilted by Vicki L. Melvin, and bound by Barb Horlocker) was mailed to his parents on August 19, 2014 by Janet Alderman, HOB state coordinator.
