Their Luggage Team handled all of our luggage with ease. Breakfast was included and was cooked to order.

We will start taking reservations and deposit money at the November meeting. Stay tuned for more information in future newsletters!

A Request from Rose of Sharon

Calling all Rose of Sharon quilters! A local community at, West Lafayette, had a flood happen last week. A dear quilting friend lost all her quilting things!. Our local guild is helping her out. Would you like to help?. I was thinking, if you could, to send us a fat quarter in the mail to give to her, or maybe send a small donation to Mercantile on Main for her?. A small donation really adds up! Let's help a help quilter out!. Please share!!!

Maybe we could get a collection of fat quarters and tools together at our next meeting and then Abby and/or I can take them down to Coshocton. We could also consider having a small collection to drop off at Mercantile on Main.
