The 37th Annual NQA Quilt Show June 8-10, 2006

The happy students in Cynthia Scott's Colorful Notebook class at the NQA Show. We created a notebook cover using a canvas foundation with embossed velvet, dupioni silk, and decorative stitching. Everyone used the same pattern and yet each piece is very different—matching the style feel of the creator! A fun project that was almost totally completed in the 3 hour class! (Photo from Cynthia Scott, Educational Coordinator, Janome America, Inc.)

Jane Hall taught us how to create a Mariner's Compass using a wonderful foundation (not paper piecing) technique. Everyone in this class completed at least one compass...as you can see from the photo. Some talented students created several during the all-day class!
