Charm Quilts

Come and share in a touch of quilt history with a look at "Charm Quilts." Made from only a one-patch template and most popular about 1880, true charm quilts have no repeating fabrics. Called "the ultimate scrap quilts," they offer a wonderful collection of period fabrics for fabric lovers and quilt historians alike. Join member Amy Korn, AQS certified quilt appraiser and quilt historian, for an in depth look at these "charming" treasures.

See page 5 for Retreat Photos!
There was a Pajama Party and lots of sewing and of course,
good food!

Westerville Quilt Guild Needs You!

We have started the process of planning for 2008. At the October meeting there will be sign up sheets for President-of-the-Month, as well as Committee Chairs and Members.

We also need to fill positions on the Executive Committee that will end December 2007; the new positions begin in January 2008 and serve for two years. They will replace Pat Hamway, Lisa Smith and Rose Wetherill who are rotating off the Committee. The Executive Committee establishes budgets and makes general decisions for the Guild.

So please give some thought in advance and please sign up where you feel your talents will best serve the Guild. Your support will help continue to make this one of the most unique guilds around. THANK YOU.

It's That Time Again!

Time to start thinking about what you want to do for 2008 when it's your turn to be President-of-the-Month! We've had a great year and we'll have another great year when everyone comes through again with programs and guests. We have some new members that will hopefully be able to add new and exciting things to the calendar for 2008. So start planning now! And we'll need Greeters too! See page 2 for a list of dates for 2008 meetings.
