NEWS

Volume 4, No 6 — June 2008

The odds of going to the quilt shop for a single fat quarter and coming out with only a single fat quarter are three billion to one.

~ With apologies to Erma Bombeck

June 24, 2008 Nancy Jo Thompson President-of-the-Month Marilyn Doheny's Wedge Ruler Demo

This is the 9° circle wedge ruler that you can use with your strata (strip sets) to create those fabulous spirals that look so difficult! You can also use this to create wedge-pieced quilts similar to a Dresden plate. Nancy Jo Thompson will show us some of the ways she has utilized this great tool. If you've used this and have a finished piece—bring it for show 'n tell!

WQG Sesquicentennial Celebration Quilt Show

We've received official confirmation from the Sesquicentennial Celebration Comm. that we can indeed charge for our ornaments. So Ann will be contacting all who signed up to help make things that fly - birds, butterflies & dragonflies. Please give us your talents for her sew-ins! Since we can't charge admission, this will still enable us to make a little money to offset our costs.

We are keeping our costs down as much as possible but have agreed to use the binder clips from Sunbury Guild to hang the quilts at a rental charge of $25. (The racks are free with a $100 refundable deposit.) The Good News: By using the binder clips, you will not have to sew hanging sleeves on your quilts. (And you all say "Wow, thanks!" and we say "You're very welcome!")

ENTRY FORMS ARE DUE At the June meeting:

- You must turn in your entry forms to Trish. You may enter as many items as you wish.
- You can all sign up for volunteer opportunities with Shirley. Please support your guild & your show by taking a shift of two.

Show Schedule: Set up: Saturday, August 30, starting time TBD (a.m. most likely)
 Show Hours: Sunday, August 31, 10 am — 5 pm, at Everal Barn
 Take down: Sunday, August 31, 5 pm, immediately after the show closes

Keep stitchin' on those entries. There's no show without lots of quilts!
