WQG Sesquicentennial Celebration Quilt Show

It's almost time for our quilt show and our committee is hard at work getting ready. We need lots of volunteers so if you haven't signed up yet, please do so at the July meeting or call Shirley Thompson.

1. Entry forms are due to Trish by July 29. If you miss the deadline you can still display your quilt in the show. You just won't be entered into the database, won't have a numbered sign on your quilt and therefore won't be eligible for a ribbon.
2. Ann Timm is working with some of you to create our "ornaments" of flying creatures to display and sell at the show. She needs cutters, sewers and stuffers. Please help her help us make a little cash at our show to offset our modest costs. There will be two workshops, July 21 and July 26 from 1 -4 pm at the Electric Company — bring fabric scraps to create birds, butterflies, and dragonflies!
3. Set up will begin at 2:00pm, Sat., August 30. If you haven't signed up to help yet, please do so.

NQA Certified Teacher of the Year Jennifer McCann

Our own guild member, Jennifer McCann was named the NQA Certified Teacher of the Year at the 39th Annual NQA Show this year! Congratulations Jennifer! She was also interviewed by the Center for the Quilt—Quilters Save Our Stories project and you can read the interview on their web site at (continued) →

Ruthie Hoover is our point person for set up and take down. She needs 4-5 helpers early to go pick up the racks at Mary Jo Scott's barn. Then she needs lots of helpers to clean the racks and hang the quilts.

4. Louise Maloy will be checking in your quilts starting at 2:00pm, Sat., August 30. You will receive a claim check during check in. You or your representative must present that claim check (s) to pick up your quilts so don't lose them!

5. The show is Sun., August 31, 10:00am - 5:00pm. We hope to have some demos in the loft area as well as lots of lovely quilts to show how talented our guild is.

I'd like to thank the committee for doing a great job. I know they'll all pull off a wonderful display for our guild. I'll be flying back from my trip to Alaska on Sat., August 30, so you won't see me there until Sunday (with some jet lag!)
