Volume 6, No 2 — February 2010

February 16, 2010

Julie Lockard

President-of-the-Month

Beth Schillig

You may remember Beth coming to dazzle us with her quilts last March. Sew, what has she been up to since then? Come see her new works of art! And you won't want to miss her slide show detailing how she created "JEEPERS ... IT'S JANE!" her contemporary version of a Dear Jane quilt. This quilt won the prestigious Viewer's Choice Award at the 2009 NQA Show here in Columbus, as well as the "Best Interpretation of Theme" award at the Pacific International Quilt Festival in Santa Clara, Ca.

UGLY Challenge

If you want to participate in the "Fun with Fabric Challenge" bring your "UGLY FABRIC Fat Quarter OR Quarter Yard" to the February Guild meeting. Julie Lockard will have a large paper bag by the sign in sheet — put your "UGLY FABRIC" in the bag. We will then ask those who are participating to pull an "UGLY FABRIC" from the bag during the (Show and Tell) portion of the meeting so you can begin the "UGLY Challenge."

Quilter's Green Tips

Recommended by
Shannon Bartlett:

Use a thin plastic sheet or a piece of Plexi-glas (leftovers from an old or broken picture frame would work great!) Instead of sketching with a pencil, use a dry-erase marker. Lay the plastic over your blocks and draw the quilting designs on the plastic. If you don't like them, wipe them off and try something different until you find the one you like. If you want to keep this design for future reference, you can trace it onto tracing paper. Then simply erase the design when you are done and use the plastic sheet again on your next project.
